

LOCAL NEWS.

NOTICE.—Persons residing in the seventh ward will hereafter pay their subscriptions to Mr. James E. Given, who is our authorized agent for that ward.

OUR GEORGETOWN SUBSCRIBERS will hereafter be served regularly with the paper, by Z. Hunt, who is our authorized agent, and to him all subscriptions will hereafter be paid.

MUSIC AT THE PRESIDENT'S GROUNDS.—There will be a musical concert at the President's Grounds this afternoon, commencing at 4 o'clock, and closing at 7 P. M. It is expected that the excellent band attached to the Rhode Island regiment will perform on that occasion. The mere announcement of this fact will, we have no doubt, be sufficient to insure a large turnout of both old and young.

REVIEW OF THE NEW JERSEY TROOPS.—At an early hour yesterday afternoon, the different regiments of the New Jersey troops, recently arrived, were drawn up in position on Pennsylvania avenue, preparatory to their proceeding to the Executive Mansion, to be reviewed by his Excellency the President of the United States. The line, two files deep, extended several squares below Fourteenth street, and presented a most imposing appearance, numbering, as they did, some 3,500 men. About half past four, they took up their line of march to the White House.

They were here reviewed by the President and Secretary of War, who seemed to be forcibly struck with the number, precision of movement, and soldierly bearing of the men, and frequently took occasion to express their pleasure of the manifestation here given, of New Jersey's determination to preserve the Union of the States, if the services of her sons could effect it.

After leaving the President's house, they passed around Lafayette square, and from thence proceeded to F street, down F to Seventh, thence to Pennsylvania avenue as far as Eleventh street, where, after going through various military evolutions, the different companies separated for their respective quarters.

THE SIXTY-NINTH REGIMENT'S CAMP.—The camp of the sixty-ninth New York regiment, in Georgetown College grounds, was yesterday visited by large numbers, both from Georgetown and this city. The Georgetown folks are doing everything they can to provide for their comfort, and the members of the regiment are enjoying themselves hugely. As in the case with the seventh, the regulations of the camp are strictly adhered to; yet the men seem greatly to enjoy it, and are only willing to exchange it for the service of the field.

THE NEW QUARTERS OF THE TWELFTH REGIMENT.—Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather the past few days, the erection of the buildings on K street, for the accommodation of the twelfth New York regiment, have gone steadily onward. They will take up their quarters there during the present week.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT CAMP.—"Camp Cameron" was visited yesterday by a large number of ladies and gentlemen. The weather being fine, the camp presented a much better appearance than it has hitherto done. Everything is now kept in the most perfect order, the regulations of camp duty being fulfilled to the letter in every respect. The line of companies continues to run to the camp-ground every half hour, and take out large numbers. Yesterday afternoon, Fourteenth street presented a very gay appearance, with many carriages en route for the camp, and the many others who chose to foot it out. The regiment have a drill near the road every afternoon, at five o'clock.

PARADE AND TARGET FIRING.—Yesterday afternoon, the Metropolitan Rifles, Captain Nalley, paraded our streets, and proceeded to the Park, on Seventh street, where they engaged in target shooting. The prize, consisting of a barrel of flour, was won by Mr. George W. Rose. The Rifles paraded about ninety rifles, and made a very handsome appearance. This was their first parade in their gray caps, which were presented to the company by Captain Nalley.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.—John S. Hollingshead has been appointed by the President a Justice of the Peace.

ARMY AT THE NAVY YARD.—A recent inspection of arms at the navy yard here shows the number to be sixty thousand.

FROM OCCOQUAN.—We have information from Occoquan, Va., which says that the excitement there has almost entirely abated. A company of volunteers from Fauquier, numbering about sixty men, are stationed in the vicinity.

LOST CHILD.—A little son of Mr. J. A. Foss, residing at number 411 Eleventh street, strayed off about three o'clock yesterday afternoon as the military were passing. The little fellow is about five years old, and is well grown for his age. He has red hair, and wears a straw hat with a green ribbon around it. His parents are very much distressed, and will be very thankful for any information that will lead to his return.

RECKLESS.—Yesterday morning, a soldier belonging to one of our city companies, who was confined in the guard room of his company for disobeying orders, got hold of a loaded musket, which had been carelessly left in the room, and discharged it from the window. The ball went through two kitchens, and lodged in the wall of a room, a few inches from the head of a lady who was sitting there.

ROBBERY.—During Monday night, the stores of Boteler & Wilson and C. W. Boteler & Son, in the Iron building, on Pennsylvania avenue, between Ninth and Tenth streets, were entered by burglars, who succeeded in finding the key of the iron safe and stealing over $400 in money. No clue has yet been had to the guilty parties.

BURGERS AROUND.—About ten o'clock last night, some daring thief undertook to break open the door of Mr. Ward, on Indiana avenue, near the railroad depot. Being unsuccessful, he tried the doors and windows of the two adjoining houses. A lady discovered him, however, gave the alarm, and the fellow ran off.

CIRCUIT COURT.—This court met again yesterday, but, without transacting any business, adjourned over until this morning.

ORPHANS' COURT.—Judge Parrell presiding. At the session of this court yesterday, the will of the late William Moore, and also that of the late Alexander Posey, were both proved.

The return of the inventory was made in the case of Dr. Evans.

Several bills were passed, and a considerable amount of general business transacted.

The troubles in the country seem to have no effect whatever upon the doings of this court.

the sessions being held regularly, and all business being transacted in the promptest manner.

UNIFORMS FOR THE FIFTH PENNSYLVANIA REGIMENT.—The fifth Pennsylvania regiment received their complete outfit yesterday, and are now in a condition to take the field at a moment's notice. They have been drilled almost constantly since their arrival here, and are now capable of going through all the movements with the greatest precision.

CENTRE MARKET.—The dealers from the surrounding counties are beginning to come into the market in greater numbers than for some time past, and, as a consequence, provisions are somewhat lower. The fish market continues to be supplied with shad from the Potomac fisheries. Prices low, and the demand small.

CENTRAL GUARDHOUSE.—Before Justice Thompson. Yesterday morning the following cases were disposed of:

Simon Lundy and Mathew Smith, drunk and disorderly; workhouse 30 days.

Margaret Wise, Sarah Grayson, and William Patterson, free negroes, persons of evil life and fame, guilty of disorderly conduct; fined $6.12 each.

Walter Marshall and John Byron, disorderly and breaking windows, fined $3.12 each.

John Hinegan, for breaking into the house of Mary Jane Taylor, assaulting her, and threatening to burn her house and kill her, was committed for trial.

Mary Branson, disorderly and profane; workhouse 60 days.

John McCann, for carrying about her person loaded pistol, and supping it at Eugene O'Connor, was sent to the workhouse for 90 days, in default of $26.12 fine and costs.

THE KILLING OF BOYD.—The examination of the parties charged with shooting Cornelius Boyd was concluded at the jail yesterday afternoon, before Justice Donn—E. C. Carrington, Esq., District Attorney, appearing for the prosecution, and Messrs. Lloyd and Norris for the defense.

Thomas Venable testified that he went to Boyd's house after the shooting, with the twenty men sent from their army. Witness saw J. Lusby and C. Osborne walking guard at the back of the house. He asked Lusby if he was at the front of the house when the firing took place. Lusby said he was not; that three of them had been stationed in the alley. Lusby told him that his gun was loaded.

Columbus Selby testified that when he arrived at the house, he saw Nicholson and Howell walking guard in the back lot. Witness talked with them. He was in the army when the squad left, but did not know the orders they received. He does not know the rules in relation to sending out squads. Witness knows nothing of Nicholson's having been shot at whether Venable recalled. Does not know whether Wood was there or not.

Washington S. Wright was sworn in. One of the lieutenants of the company. He was in the army on the night in question. Some time between nine and eleven o'clock, Sergeant Murphy came in and stated to the captain that a man named Crump had told some one that Boyd had uttered treasonable expressions, and that he had drank a toast, "hoping to see the Palmetto flag floating from the dome of the Capitol in three days." Captain told him to bring evidence of the fact, and he would tell him what to do. Witness had never given an order for a squad to go out. They could not go out without orders, unless they went contrary to regulations. He never knew of squads going out, although he had heard that Captain Miller sent out a squad to arrest Cunningham.

Wm. F. Garrett testified that he is one of the lieutenants, and was at the army when the squad went out. He did not hear the order given to make the arrest. When the men were ordered to prepare to go out, heard Captain Miller tell Sergeant Murphy to get evidence on the party, and he would give him his orders. He does not know the man's name who they spoke of, or of the treason. He did not see Murphy again until after the shooting, nor does he remember Mitchell bringing in a bucket of water. Murphy, he thinks, brought in some names on a paper before he left. Witness does not remember that Murphy told him that he would have to go over the navy yard and among the brick kilns to get the information. Captain Miller told Murphy to get a written affidavit. Murphy asked Miller if he should take him dead or alive, and witness said, "No such orders." He did not see Bevans when the squad went out. He did not hear the order for the men to arrest the man given, or any such order, that night. He did not hear any complaint made of their having forcibly passed the sentry. The men cannot get out past the sentry well, without giving the password, although they sometimes do so.

The case was then argued by the counsel. The justice will give his decision to-day.

EXAMINATION OF CAPTAIN MILLER.

Justice Donn, immediately on the conclusion of the examination of the parties charged with killing Boyd, took up the case of Captain George M. Miller, charged with being an accessory in the case. E. C. Carrington, Esq., District Attorney, conducted the prosecution, and Messrs. Bradley & Son the defense.

Captain Joseph Carroll testified that, on the morning after the shooting, Mr. Brown, himself, and others were standing on the street crossing, when Captain Miller came up. Mr. Brown asked Captain Miller if he had authority to make the arrest. Captain Miller replied that the Colonel said that he ought to have killed all the men.

S. F. Gates testified that he knows Captain Miller, but he never heard him say anything in relation to the shooting of Boyd. Captain Miller had said that he had authority to arrest, if he had the proper proof. He spoke of some men being under arrest, and said that they must be out by the next day, or there would be difficulty. He spoke as if he had an understanding with some persons, who would force them out. He thinks it was the military he spoke of.

The Justice here remarked that Captain Miller told him that Col. Mansfield said that they should be tried immediately.

Lieutenants Wright and Garrett were sworn, and testified that Capt. Miller had always denied having issued orders for Boyd's arrest.

Mrs. Julia Murphy testified that on the morning after the occurrence, she saw Capt. Miller coming past her house, and she went out and asked him about the affair. Capt. Miller said that Murphy had not violated the law, and that he would be at liberty in a few days. The only thing in which Murphy did not do right was in not bringing the dead body.

Misses Julia Murphy, Elizabeth Murphy, and Mrs. Humphrey and McNally, sisters of Sergeant Murphy, corroborated this testimony. The case was dismissed.
